

Where Mom Really Wants to Dine This Mother's Day, According to a TripAdvisor Survey

April 30, 2019

Family and Friends May Be Overestimating Their Abilities to Wine and Dine Mom on Her Special Day TripAdvisor Offers Insider Dining Tips on How to Wow Mom This Year

NEEDHAM, Mass., April 30, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- TripAdvisor[®], one of the world's largest restaurant sites, today announced how mom really wants to dine on Mother's Day. A survey of over 7,900 U.S. participants¹ revealed telling results: Her idea of a great Mother's Day dining experience may not be what you think.

Mother Knows Best:

- 70% of family members believe they anticipate their mom's Mother's Day dining preferences "extremely" or "very" well, while only 46% of moms agree.
- Moms' top dining choice for celebrating Mother's Day is going out to brunch (30%), yet only 16% report being taken out to brunch by their families last year.
- Her other top dining choices: a home-cooked meal (24%) and going out to dinner (17%).
- Moms aren't picky: Their favorite restaurant style for Mother's Day is everyday dining (restaurants that provide great meals for any occasion) over fine dining.

What do families get right? They know mom enjoys spending the day with her children (48%), partner (25%) and extended family (19%) over being alone (<1%).

"Taking mom out for Mother's Day is always popular, but this year consider making a day of it and go to brunch – it's her top choice," said Nicki Hoffman, Associate Director, Restaurants Marketing. "To help diners celebrate Mother's Day in style, TripAdvisor has surfaced a list of great brunch spots² in major U.S. cities, based on TripAdvisor diners' reviews. Treating her to one of these dining options is sure to show how appreciated she is."
